#	SPONSOR	DESCRIPTION
SB 652	Simmons	Liability of Spaceflight Entities - Revises the definition of the term "spaceflight entity" to include certain manufacturers and suppliers for purposes of specified provisions for immunity from liability. Saves a provision from future repeal which provides spaceflight entities with immunity from liability for the loss, damage, or death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of spaceflight activities.
802629	Gaetz	The amendment extends immunity to spaceflight entities, aerospace manufacturers, and aerospace suppliers to include liability protection for property damage, injury, or death of a third party. Further, the amendment will grant aerospace manufacturers and suppliers immunity from any death, injury or property damage that occurs during the manufacturing or supplying of such products. The amendment will also require a spaceflight entity, manufacturer, or supplier to publish the required warning in a newspaper circulated in the locality where the entity, manufacturer, or supplier has its principal place of business.
